

COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS

From the Gilead Outreach and Referral Center

What is a Community Health Center?

★ Community Health Centers are places in your neighborhood that provide affordable health care to all people.

☐ You can use your medical card, but you don't have to have one.

🌸 You can take your kids there for check-ups and shots (immunizations) or for back-to-school physicals. You and the rest of your family can go there, too. You can go there if you or your children are feeling bad, if you have an emergency, or for a regular check-up. You and your family can get care before you're really sick.

😊 All people can get the basic care they need regardless of income, lack of insurance, or immigration status.

☎ Community Health Centers do require some documentation. It's always good to call ahead for an appointment if you have a chance.

What do I bring with me?

If you DO NOT have a medical card you need to bring:

1. Identification (passport, matricula, driver's license, birth certificate, etc.)
2. Proof of Income, either:
  - Your last 2 check stubs or
  - Public Aid/SSI check stub or
  - Written letter from your employer or
  - If you have ZERO income, you can bring a letter from whoever you stay with stating you do not have an income
3. Cost: The cost of your visit depends on your income and family size. The health center staff will tell you how much your visit will cost.

If you DO HAVE a medical card you need to bring:

1. Picture ID (passport or driver's license, and birth certificate for your child)
2. Medical Card (from Public Aid, Medicare, Insurance, etc.)

The Gilead Outreach and Referral Center is a not-for-profit organization that connects people with existing health care services for which they are eligible. We refer many people to Community Health Centers all around the Chicago area. Community Health Centers provide affordable, quality care to all who are in need. They specialize in primary and preventive care, and can refer people to hospitals or many types of specialized care as needed.

For more information about Community Health Centers, please call the Gilead Center at 312-906-6024.
